

THE COMMITTEE OF 100

FYI

May 13, 2015

State Chamber to Host Medical Infrastructure Symposium

Several members of The Committee of 100 serve on the Infrastructure and Health committees of the State Chamber of Commerce. On May 21, the committees are jointly sponsoring a two-hour symposium on the future of medical technology and infrastructure in Delaware. The symposium will be held at the STAR Campus of the University of Delaware and will feature an impressive panel of experts including Dr. Janice Nevin, CEO of Christiana Care, Dr. Kathy Matt, Dean of UD's College of Health Sciences, Paul Kempinski, COO Nemours Children's Health System, Michael Metzger from Bayhealth, and Tom Brown, SVP of Nanticoke Health Services.

There is no fee for the program, but registration is required. Breakfast is included and a tour of the STAR Campus will follow the program for those interested. Follow this link to the State Chamber website to register:
