Comment Period Open for County Comp Plan

Over the past 18 months, New Castle County staff has worked with subject matter experts, stakeholders, and residents to create a blueprint for the County's growth between now and 2050. The plan addresses issues such as future growth, economic development, housing and the environment.

The County is encouraging the community to review the first full draft of the Comprehensive Plan and provide feedback/comments by January 12, 2022. They will then proceed to refine the draft and ready it for formal consideration for adoption in the spring.
